Brandreth's Pills. Parity, Cleanse, Take it from the body corrupt humors, obviate a state of correscess—so shall your cold, your influence your dysentery, our rheumatism, your weakness and doblity, and your aim in the side, be the affair of a day. Disease cannot relate the state of a day.

pills will restore them to order and re-establish the body's Sealth.

It is now well understood that there is no part of the human system but which is made from the blood. It follows, then, that no part of the system will be afficied with disease so long as the blood is in a state of purity. It is ossentially requisite that the precess of directions should be unteral and health, and that our inspirations should supply the lungs with pure air. When from any cause these necessary attendants of health on one texist, the blood becomes impore and disease makes its appearance. Its form, location and character may depend upon the general condition of the system at the time, yet the cause and the remedy are ever the same. The one is the impurity of the blood, and the other a complete faystem of purpation until the blood is purified, when new life and pleasure are imparted to the whole animal machine. Use the proper purgatives until a complete evacuation forces from the system all the accrimonious and irritating humors. Would the faculty admit his simple truth, the profession of medicine would assume a character among the learned professions such as its importance we identified it to.

CERTIFICATES, RECENT, CONCERNING BRANDERTH'S PILLES—Frem Mr. NOTON, an extensive house painter at the village of Sing Sing:—

Sing Sing, March 23, 1855.
CURE OF PRIMILES IN THE FACE, OF THREE YEARS' CONTINUANCE.

DR. BRANDRETH—Dear Sir:—For some considerable period I have been troubled with an impurity or acridity of the blood, which seemed to be past cure. My face in cosnequence, presented an unseemly collection of pimples. I was abstemious, and seldom tasted any beverage atronger than water, and yet, with all my care as to dist, my blood got no better, and my appearance continued the same. My face all the time seemed as it it were held some a first it seemed as if something was on it that might be brushed off. It was very annoying, and caused me much anxiety, not because it interiored with my personal appearance, which is did, but because it more or less affected my health, which was beginning to break down. I took very little medicine; but when the above state of things had remined about the same for three years, I was laduced to as your pills. I took them, in all, shout due meanth—werey day, or nearly so—taking no higher dose than the pills, and sometimes only one. I think, altogether, I did to use over tour bores. They could me completely. My nearly implies in few from all piuples and infilamation, and my complete in the few means account, which you may publish. I am, with respect, yours, de.

der this account, which you may pusses. N. H. BAKER. spect, yours, 4c.
Dr. BRANDRETH—Sir—From my earliest childhood, I was subject to bleeding at the nose, dirainess, singing in my ears, and a heavy dull teeling in my head. Being of a strong, ro and a heavy dull feeling in my head. Heing of a strong, robust habit, the physicans said I had too much blood—that it was too rich, also.

At the age of twenty-five, the bleeding from my nose not being so frequent as before, they thought it necessary to employ bleeding with the lancet and lecones to my neck, against the dreadful headsches from which I suffered. It seemed to give me great relief; but in a week or two the same course had to be again practised. In one year I was bled twentythree times, and had not less than two hundred lecohes applied to my neck and back. I was put upon the use of baths, and a long course of saline medicines was pre-cribed. This course was pursued for several year, which was doing all the dectors could to break down an originally fins constitution. It is now about four year-since I commenced to feel acute pains in my caest, head, limbs, joints, between the shoulders and along the spine, and in the threat. During all this season of sickness my bowels were either bound or in a state of looseness—costiveness generally prevailing. General oppression and sleeplessness came on, I lost my appetite entirely, and began to spit blood. The doctors seemed to do me no good, and, worn out with their treatment, I determined in November last to commence with your pills. I commenced with four pile, and continued to take them deally for nearly two mounts, going up as high as twelvelpils and as low as one. I also several times took the boneset, as prescribed by Dr. James hull, in his sixteen obes, the spitting of blood ceased entirely, the pains in my carle arporisone with your pills. After the first firen does, the spitting of blood ceased entirely, the pains in my learly experience with your pills. After the first firen

With reference to the above, apply to D. D. Howard, late of the Irving House, New York, new of Burlington, Vo., and E. B. Virgil, of Poy, N. Y.; also to James inul, M. D., Pettsdam, N. Y.; Wm. G. Livingston, S. D., Hamilton, Canada West, and Dr. James Shim, Paducah, Ky., who also used the pills in his practice for twenty years. Dr. Brandrethe an refer to twenty three hundred physicians in the United States and Canada as to the superiority of Brandreth's fills over all burgatives.

the United States and Canacis as to the appeniarity of Brandreth's gills over all purgatives.

The principles of disease and that of Hie are alike incomprehensible. We are only able to point out what will weaken the one, or give strength to tre other. The value of the Brandreth pills depends upon tacir wondered power in arrengthening the principle of lite, and wessening the principle of disease, and finally expelling it from the body. Let us consider the subject carefully. Would disease affect us if our blood were pure? Then, in proportion as Brandreth pills purity the blood, they tend to restore health. The very action upon the system which Brandreth's pills possess convinces all who use them that they remove only the impure humors; for if they took any of the healthy fluids from the body, it would be weakened. But the contrary is the case. The body becomes stronger every day from the use of the Brandreth pills, as is known by the experience of tens of thousands of sure citizens.

ation of the body, there it settles, and there it produces gain and direase.

I have known many persons purged twenty and thirty days in succession, and the result was always estisfactory; in every instance the most remarkable improvement took place. I remember one person who I knew had worms, from his peculiar symptoms; he pessivered for forty days; every dayfor the forty days an expensance of worms was seen, but after that time he voided a great number, some of extraordinary size. What effect would have resulted from three or four doses of cathactics—what would have become of him if he had not been purged to a radical cure? It would be impossible to show the sensefit to be derived from a perseverance with the Bras dresh pills in these limits. They must be used to be sufficiently appreciated.
